A Budget of News from Seymour.

Special to the Sentinel.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Jan. 4.—Taylor Stearns, aged twenty-five years, and residing six miles southeast of here, was thrown backward by the rearing of his horse to the frozen ground while returning home Thursday afternoon. He received a severe cut on the head and shoulder and is severely injured internally. His condition is critical.

Birney Monroe, aged twenty-five years, was found dead in his bed at the late residence of his mother, Mrs. Adeline Monroe, yesterday afternoon, unaided and alone at the time. He had been the victim of chronic disease for a long time.

Casper Schafer has housed over 400 tons of beautiful seven-inch ice during the present cold spell.

The Seymour Manufacturing Company are so overrun with orders for their goods that they are running their works day and night.

W. N. Barnett, agent of the J. M. and I. Road at Rockford, two miles north of here, was thrown from his sleigh on Thursday and had his right hand badly broken. His suffering was so intense Friday that he came near having the lock-jaw.

The Indianapolis and Seymour Conference of German ministers, which embraces a large portion of Southern Indiana, will meet at Rev. Philip Schmidt's church, this city, on Tuesday morning, and continue in session two days. The Conference bids fair to be largely attended and very interesting.

Miss Lizzie Grand and her brother and Miss Etta Thumser returned from the World's Exposition yesterday, and are highly delighted with the sights on exhibition. They saw many Indians there.

The City Council Thursday night adopted a resolution providing for the payment of city taxes in equal semi-annual installments, the first half on or before the third Monday in April, and the second half on or before the first Monday in November. The resolution takes effect at once. This will be a great relief to the taxpayers of our city.

The cantata of "Queen Esther" was played the fifth and last time last night. The net receipts it is thought will be about $200.

The meeting was called to express the desire of this county as to their choice for District for the next House. Mr. William M. Neal, of this city, is a candidate for that position, and the following resolutions were adopted as the voice of the Democracy of this county:

Whereas, Ex-Senator William M. Neal is a candidate for the office of Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives of the State of Indiana at the coming session, therefore,

Be it Resolved, By the Democracy of this county, that William M. Neal be and is hereby unanimously endorsed as a sterling Democrat, whose life, both public and private, has ever been characterized by honesty, integrity and industry, and command him to the members of said House as a competent and proper person to be entrusted with that office.

A Watchman Murdered and Robbed.

Special to the Sentinel.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Jan. 4.—A foul murder was committed here last night. Louis Feder, a German, about fifty-five years old, employed as night watchman at Rye's spoke factory, being the victim. He owns a small vegetable and fruit farm a short distance east, on the pike, occupied only by himself and wife, and not going home to breakfast this morning his wife went to the factory to learn the cause, and found him lying on his face with his brains beaten out, quite dead. Her screams brought those living near the factory to the scene, but nothing was discovered to indicate the perpetrators of the crime. He had received his wife's wages that night, which, together with a silver watch, were taken, showing the object to have been robbery. The watch clock indicator showed that he was on duty at 2 o'clock, and was not on duty at 2:30, and the surrounding indicate that he was murdered with a heavy spoke which lay by his side, wielded by the concealed murderer. The citizens are greatly excited, as this is the climax to several recent robberies and attempted robberies, and if the murderer is discovered Judge Lynch will likely open court.

B. and O. Telegraph Market Quotations and a Rapid and Simple Ticker.

Special to the Sentinel.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—The Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company proposes to begin at once the service of collecting and furnishing to the public and commercial organizations various market quotations, and to this end has established a commercial news bureau, with Daniel J. Ludwig superintendent, with headquarters in New York City. Superintendent Ludwig has had charge of the commercial news department of the Western Union Company for a number of years, and it was chiefly through his instrumentality that it has reached its present great success. He brings to the Baltimore and Ohio service his assistant, G. W. Schuster, and many other valuable aids. This telegraph company has the control of Henry Van Hovenburgh's perfect stock and grain printer, the most rapid and simplest "ticker" ever invented, and is introduced into the various cities in this country as rapidly as possible during the next six months, giving a quicker and cheaper quotation service than has ever before been furnished.

Resigned and Anxious.

Special to the Sentinel.

MATTOON, Ill., Jan. 4.—T. J. Chapman, sentenced to be hung January 23, for the murder of Nicholas Hubbard, was baptized today in the jail at Charleston. Rev. Robert McIntire, of the Methodist Church, officiated. Chapman is resigned to his fate, and is anxious to have his agony over with as soon as possible.

Fell from a Wagon.

Special to the Sentinel.

DELPHI, Ind., Jan. 4.—Miss Holman, a young lady school teacher, fell from a wagon here yesterday, and had an arm broken and received other dangerous injuries.

Overdraws Its Account.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 4.—The Sunday Telegram publishes the statement that the outgoing government has overdrawn its account $64,000. Added to this are outstanding bills to the amount of $16,000. The government borrowed from the Sprick River Improvement fund $75,000 to meet the deficiency. The Treasurer's books verify the charges.

POVERTY'S PANGS.

Strong Men Seeking Refuge from Starvation in the Penal Institutions of Massachusetts.

Boston, Jan. 4.—For some time past Barney Long, a poor little sickly fellow, has been hanging around the South End, living on charity and sleeping in stables, outhouses, and frequently staying out doors all night. He is rheumatic and apparently in quick consumption. Friday night Patrolman Fousha found him tottering about the streets nearly frozen, and took him to a saloon and gave him a hearty meal. He was so hungry that he is said to have eaten enough for two able-bodied men. In the course of a conversation with the wretched fellow the policeman learned that he had had no food for three days. The lad said he had tried to obtain work and failed. He was willing to go anywhere and do anything if he could only get food and fed. He was taken to the station and came up before Judge McCallery. He pleaded guilty yesterday to vagrancy, and said he wanted to be sent away.

"I am frequently called upon to deal with hard cases," said the Judge, reddening and speaking in a loud, impressive voice, as he usually does when moved or excited, "but this is one of the saddest that I ever saw. There is something rotten in the charities of Boston or I would not have so many cases of the kind. Five or six men came before me last week and pleaded guilty to a crime for the sake of a living. Strong, rugged men, capable of working and supporting others, pleaded guilty and are sent away among criminals for the sake of being clothed and fed. It is wrong and unjust. I protest against it in the name of humanity."

The young fellow was sentenced to the island for six months, and went down the steps smiling at the prospect of an assured living. He will probably be taken from the House of Industry and sent to a hospital for medical treatment.

Death of a Former St. Louis Mayor.

St. Louis, Jan. 4.—A dispatch from San Francisco conveyed intelligence of the death there, yesterday, of John How, father of Colonel J. J. How, one of the Vice Presidents of the Wabash Railroad, and at present General Agent of the Receivers of that road; also, of E. W. How, of Houston, Tex., connected with the Sunset Route in that State. Mr. How was formerly one of the leading merchants of this city, and served three terms as Mayor away back in the fifties. He also spent several years mining in Montana, and was the United States Agent for the Shoshone Indians in Nevada, for four years.

Death From Malpractice.

New York, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Adele Behend, wife of a First Avenue furniture dealer, died today from malpractice. Two feminine attendants were arrested.

Arrested for Beating His Wife to Death. Chicago, Jan. 4.—Samuel Daniels, a marble cutter, accused of beating his wife to death, was arrested today. The woman died yesterday. Daniels says her demise was the result of a drunken fall.

Greencastle Star-Press: The Indianapolis Sentinel is a good paper for news, Democratic at all times and under all circumstances, and deserving of a generous support from the Democrats of Indiana. After subscribing for your home paper take the Sentinel.

Frankfort Crescent: Of all the papers that stood by the Democratic party for years, the Indianapolis Sentinel takes the lead. It has stood bravely by the party through years of defeat, and now that the victory has been won, deserves recognition by the Democrats of Indiana. Let every good Democrat subscribe for it—the party's paper.

Crawford County Democrat: As a medium of news to every citizen, whatever his political predilections may be. There is no paper so valuable as the Sentinel. In fact it is the central of any paper in the West. Being published in the capital of our State, it enjoys facilities for obtaining and disseminating news and general information not possessed by any paper outside of Indianapolis. Besides that it is ably edited, has a host of contributors and reporters, and is always reliable and entertaining to every class of readers.

Kokomo Dispatch: The Dispatch would urge its Democratic readers to subscribe for the Indianapolis Sentinel in preference to any foreign journal. It is the duty of Democrats to sustain their State organ, and the more so since it is one of the acknowledged leading journals of the West. There is no reason under heaven why the State organ should not have a home circulation of from 75,000 to 100,000. This result can be reached if Democrats do their duty fairly and cordially by the State Sentinel. Every brace given to the Sentinel is just so much strength to the party. If Indiana is to remain permanently Democratic, our State organ must be built up and given a generous support. This is the duty of Democrats.

Advice to Mothers.—MR. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once. It produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
